Sen. Cropsey welcomes St. Johns pastor to Senate session

LANSING – State Sen. Alan Cropsey, R-DeWitt, welcomed Pastor Krag Johnson of Grove Bible Church in St. Johns to the Michigan Capitol Wednesday. Pastor Johnson gave the invocation to start the Senate's session.

“It was a joy to have Pastor Johnson pray for today's Senate session,” said Cropsey. “The contribution that members of the clergy make to our society is vital to its ongoing health, and I'm delighted that they can be a part of our work at the Capitol.”
